STAKEHOLDERS' SHOWDOWN

Join the Stakeholder's showdown, where you represent a key faction in a collapsing economy. With limited resources and mounting pressure, you must negotiate, strategise, and advocate to guide your group through financial turmoil. Build alliances, make tough decisions, and fight for stability amidst uncertainty.

Maximum teams: 5

Participants per team: 3-4 participants per team

Can you lead through the crisis?

Battle it out and fight for your side with the Stakeholder Showdown. It kicks off with the Initial Crisis, where teams must tackle a complex crisis, presenting their bold strategies and perspectives. In a battle of ideas, they face sharp rebuttals and showcase their understanding of the situation. As tensions rise, the Crisis Update throws new developments at the teams, forcing them to adapt quickly and rethink their approaches on the fly. The final round, The Showdown, introduces high-stakes strategy and negotiation. Teams have a chance to form alliances, forge deals, and prepare their final stand, battling for dominance in an unpredictable and thrilling SHOWDOWN.

Judging Criteria:

All the teams will be judged based on their organization and clarity, use of concepts and theories, rebuttal, teamwork and presentation skills.

THE COURTING

Step into the courtroom and experience the thrill of The Courting, where participants tackle real-world legal cases in three intense rounds. With case briefs based on actual events, you'll have just minutes to prepare and defend one side, navigating complex legal issues under pressure. In a realistic courtroom simulator, The Courting tests your legal reasoning and rhetorical skills, demanding quick analysis, persuasive arguments, and critical thinking—just like real legal battles. Success requires creativity, adaptability, and teamwork. Whether you aim for a future in law or want to prove your skills, the ball is in your court. With rewards and recognition at stake, only the sharpest legal minds will emerge victorious.

Maximum Number of Teams: 8

Participants per team: 3-4 participants per team

Get ready to argue your case:

Round 1: All 8 teams receive a legal case brief 24 hours before the event and are assigned to argue either for or against the case.

Round 2: The 4 advancing teams face off in the semi-finals with cases presented on the spot.

Round 3: The final 2 teams compete in the ultimate showdown to claim victory, while the 3rd and 4th place teams battle for the bronze.

Judging Criteria:

The teams will be judged based on their debating skills, team unity, knowledge, and presentation skills.

THE MORE THE MONEY

Get ready for an exciting quiz event that tests your knowledge across four categories: economics, business, current affairs, and the history of economics. Teams will compete in three unique rounds that push quick thinking, collaboration, and strategy to the limit.

Maximum teams: 24

Participants per team: 3-4 participants per team

It's a race against the clock. Are you ready?:

Round 1– Buzzer Showdown: A fast-paced, round targetting the 4 categories. Teams must be quick to buzz in and answer. Correct answers score points, while wrong answers result in penalties or give opponents a chance to steal.

Round 2– Jeopardy Strategy: Teams tackle a Jeopardy-style game, picking questions from a grid. Each question has a different difficulty level and point value, challenging teams to balance risk and reward over 90 minutes.

Round 3– Battleship Duel: Teams answer questions to fire shots at their opponents' virtual battleship grids. Correct answers bring them closer to sinking the opponent's fleet, adding an exciting twist of strategy and skill.

With a mix of speed, strategy, and teamwork, this event promises an intense and engaging competition.
